Hi Nicole!

How are you? Two things:

- 1) can you send me the Ameoba letter on Min wage?
- 2) when would you like to meet and chat min wage / other policy issues?

Yep. I'll forward as soon as I'm back in the office. 1ish.

Are you around tomorrow afternoon to meet on minimum wage? I'm pretty open most of the day.

Lets talk on the phone first and set up a meeting for next week – that way we can catch up and plan the action.
This thing is being shaped right now is my understanding.

David-

Here is the Amoeba records letter on the Mayor's minimum wage proposal. As you know, Amoeba has nearly 250 employees. The Chamber will be advocating that business like Amoeba with 250 employees or less should be considered as small businesses in terms of any tiered phase in that the City may be considering for implementation of the wage increase. More for a later discussion.

Hope all is well with Team CD-13!

Warmest Regards,

Nicole Shahenian

Hi Nicole:

This was dropped off at our office today – the matter will come before us after budget / minimum wage, though they have community meetings well into June.

On another note, when is Curren Price coming to the Chamber? Leron mentioned the visit for sometime this week, if I remember correctly.
